Christ Church Georgetown

Support the rich liturgical history and extraordinary music program at Christ Church

The Third Century Campaign is making it possible for Christ Church to install a new organ, built specifically for the architectural and acoustic character of its worship space.

Invitation to Participate

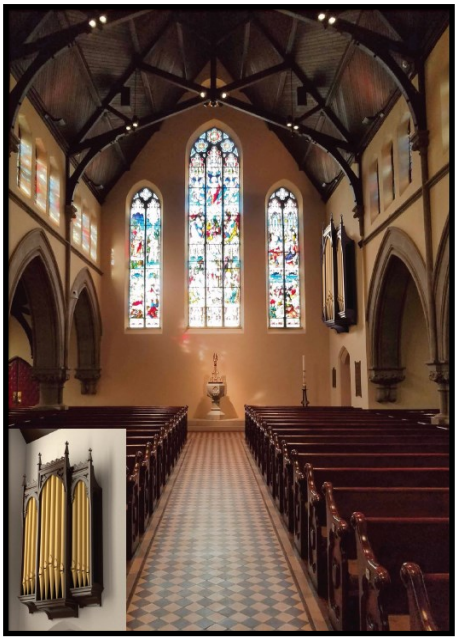

Liturgical music holds a special place in the life of Christ Church, and the existing organ, which has served the congregation well, is approaching the end of its useful life. The plan is to install a new, state-of-the-art instrument, designed specifically for the space, that will enable the Parish to maintain and, indeed, elevate its exceptionally high liturgical and musical standards. In addition to accompanying the Choir, an organ must adequately support the congregation as well as various parts of the liturgy. The new organ will be built with these requirements in mind, and the goal of supporting the liturgical and musical needs of Christ Church for decades to come.

As part of the Campaign, Christ Church received a significant gift designated for the new organ, but additional funds are needed to ensure the instrument is designed and built in the best possible way both musically and aesthetically.

Subject to change and design revisions

The new instrument—including casework, new antiphonal division, and new console—is being designed and installed by R. A. Colby, Inc., a Tennessee-based company now in its third generation of providing for the special requirements of pipe organs.

For information about the organ, contact Organist/Choirmaster Tom Smith at tom@christchurchgeorgetown.org.
